

This is a group photograph of the family taken out in 1948 in Calcutta. By the early 1940's, Before the start of the war Hasan Ali, his wife and those of their children who were in Iran went to Calcutta where they met up with the younger children who had remained in Burma . The old lady sitting in the middle of the photograph is Maan Dadi, Hasan Ali's aunt (sister of Mohd Backer). She was called Maan dadi because she lived in Mandalay.

Standing L to R:

1) Sakina, wife of M. Reza, 2) Mohd Reza, 3) Shireen, wife of M. Ali 4) Mohd Ali
 5) Shireen (emehjoon), 6) Mohd Backer, 7) Khursheed, wife of Ameen, 8) Mohd Ameen
 9) Amina, (Annie) wife of Mohd Mehdy 10) Mohd Mehdy

Sitting L to R:

Ali Akbar, Hasan Ali (Asad on lap - left), Maan Dadi, Fatima (Ashraf on lap - right), Ali Asghar

Sitting on the ground L to R:

Jalal, Shahnaz, Shahrukh, Banoo, Farokh, Enver, Farideh, Ferooz,