Haji Hosein Bindahneem + Aga Ahmed Bindahneem were brothers. They were Iranis who came from Bahrain in the 1800's. They came to Rangoon to trade. They used to lend money at the rate of 50%. پن ۹۰۵ means for every 10 Rs they would charge Rs 5 interest. i.e. Ten of half. In Persian it means پن ۹۰۵
 $\frac{10}{10} \quad \frac{1}{2}$

When sons were born they came to be known as "sons of ten of half. Bin means son of ~~thus they children~~ + Thus they came to be known as Bin dah ho neem = Bindahneem, son 10 of half

The elder brother Haji Hosein had no children. He formed a very big Trust for the needy Shias & built an Imambara. His trust buildings are still standing & functioning in Rangoon.

The younger brother Aga Ahmed had issues which you will see in the chart. He also left behind a trust for the needy which is still standing in Rangoon. This trust is smaller. But still consists of many buildings. His children inherited, after $\frac{1}{3}$ was allotted to trust as in the will. Both ³ brothers retired to Baghdad Kazamain & their graves are still there. Money used to be sent to Baghdad from Rangoon till the II world war for someone to read Korian on their graves everyday!
